Data Protection & GDPR

1) The personal data that the club holds on you is: Name, Address, telephone, email address. The club uses this information to communicate with you and to administer membership, collecting subscriptions and other payments.

I hereby give permission for the TDCC to hold and use my data for the purposes above and to allow the use of my email address in open distribution lists, solely for internal communications within the club.

2) Additionally, the club may wish to use your data (including photographs that can be identified with you) in our publications and on our social media platforms and we ask for your permission to do so:

I hereby give permission for the club to use my data as described above.

3) Because we handle images where the copyright of those images is yours we need to take care of how this is used and protected:

I hereby agree that images submitted for club activities may be stored and displayed on the club website and other club internal storage. I understand that whilst the direct downloading of images is denied, the TDCC website does not deliver full protection. The club will not use images for any other purposes without my permission and the copyright of all images remains with myself.

By signing and dating this form you are agreeing to the items 1, 2 and 3 above.

A copy of our Data protection policy is available on the website.
